Introduction to Northamptonshire

One of Britain's best kept secrets, a land ripened with fascinating history and vast scenic beauty, Northamptonshire is one of the most stunning of the English counties.

Within 2 hours drive of three quarters of the UK's population, you're sure to be closer to us than you ever imagined – And you'll discover that underneath the peaceful surface of this quintessentially English county, bubbles the excitement and variety of lots to do and see.

Miles of real British countryside, miles of things to do...

Whether you decide to stay for a few days or longer, there is always lots on offer for every season, no matter your age or interests. Immerse yourself in the history of the region by visiting one of the majestic stately homes, gardens or castles. Tread where warriors battled at Naseby, meander along our historical waterways or feast your eyes on the renowned boot and shoe collection in Northampton. Several of the Boroughs offer there own reduced rates Leisure pass, details of how to apply are at the back of this booklet.

Enjoy fun with friends or family and plan a trip around one of our big annual events such as the Northampton Balloon Festival.

Lets have a look at what else is available in Northamptonshire...
